

PROGRAM
Management and restoration of Wheatbelt Woodlands
AFTER THE FENCE
Muresk Institute, Northam 17-18 March

Day One

Time	Topic	Presenter
9.30-10.30 am	Registration (Tea and coffee provided)
10.30 am	Workshop introduction and housekeeping	Helena Mills
10.45 am	Wheatbelt woodlands – what are they, where are they and why are they important?	Greg Keighery
11.15 am	Ecosystem processes in woodland (including threats to remnants)	Nathan McQuoid
11.45 am	Wheatbelt woodland restoration—what have we learnt?	Rachel Standish
12.15 pm	Planning a management and restoration project in remnant vegetation	Julia Cullity
12.45 pm	Lunch (Homestead)
1.45 pm	Weeds and weed management in Wheatbelt woodlands	Kate Brown
2.15 pm	Case study – Weed control in remnant vegetation	Mike Griffiths
2.45 pm	Ectomycorrhizal fungi - valuable components of Wheatbelt woodlands	Neale Bougher
3.15 pm	Afternoon Tea
3.45 pm	Flora ID – practical exercise
5.30 pm	Close Day 1 proceedings/break before dinner
6.30 pm	Dinner (Homestead)
7.00 pm	Dinner speaker – Balancing production and conservation in fragmented landscapes	Patrick Smith

Day Two

8.30 am	Introduction to Day 2 and housekeeping	Helena Mills
8.45 am	Considering sourcing of plant material for restoration, and the concept of provenance	Melissa Millar
9.15 am	Carnaby's Black Cockatoo – using a flagship species for conserving biodiversity in the Wheatbelt	Dejan Stojanovic
9.45 am	Monitoring and adaptive management for management and restoration projects	Kevin Thiele
10.15 am	Morning tea
10.30 am sharp	Onto buses for field visits
4.00 pm	Workshop wrap-up in field	Helena Mills
4.30 pm	Arrive back at venue for departure	